Solid performances from the top three going into the last round preserved their medal chances and the final order remained unchanged.
Others improved their standings with a good last night and it is noticeable how tight the general points were in the end.
It was a tough night with high temperatures being a factor, but the standard, as with other nights was good. It has been a very even standard across the four sessions with players fighting for every set to influence the final positions.
Thanks to all players who participated. I hope you enjoyed the competition.
